Newman is district Trooper of The Year

Cpl. Curtis L. Newman of the Highway Patrol will be honored at a luncheon meeting Tuesday, Feb. 12 in Gulfport as part of the Mississippi District Exchange Clubs' "Trooper of the Year" awards program.

Newman, a Pass Christian resident, will be the guest of the Gulfport Exchange Club at noon at the Holiday Inn (beachside).

The Gulfport meeting is one of 12 presentation ceremonies being held over the state that will end when the statewide "Trooper of the Year" is named in February.

Newman was selected "Trooper of the Year" for the Highway Patrol district headquartered in Gulfport.

Newman, 42, was graduated from the Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers' Training Academy in 1968 assigned as a driver license examiner in the district headquartered in Hattiesburg.

For 16 years he has served as an enforcement officer in the Gulfport District.

In 1984, Newman was one of 18 Highway Patrol troopers who earned membership into the Governor's 100 Club for writing more than 100 DUI citations during the 12-month period of 1983.

Newman was instrumental in the 1982 arrest of an escaped prisoner who shot and wounded a Waveland police officer during the escape.

That same year Newman arrested a subject who only moments earlier had robbed a Pass Christian family and left three children handcuffed to a camper in a wooded area.

The subject had stolen the family's automobile, a large amount of cash, gold and silver which were recovered.

In 1983, Newman was presented an award of merit by Sheriff John Ledbetter of Jackson County for arresting two men after they robbed a pharmacy in Gautier.

A 1961 graduate of Gulfport High School, Newman served from 1964 until 1970 in the Air National Guard being discharged with the rank of staff sergeant.

Newman is married to the former Joanne Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Williams Sr. of Gulfport. He and his wife have two children, a daughter, Angela, and a son, Curtis L. Newman Jr.

His mother, Mrs. W.E. Newman Sr., resides in Gulfport. Newman's father is deceased.

He and his family are members of Sacred Heart Church in Dedeaux. Newman is a member of the Mississippi Law Enforcement Officers' Association and Farm Bureau.

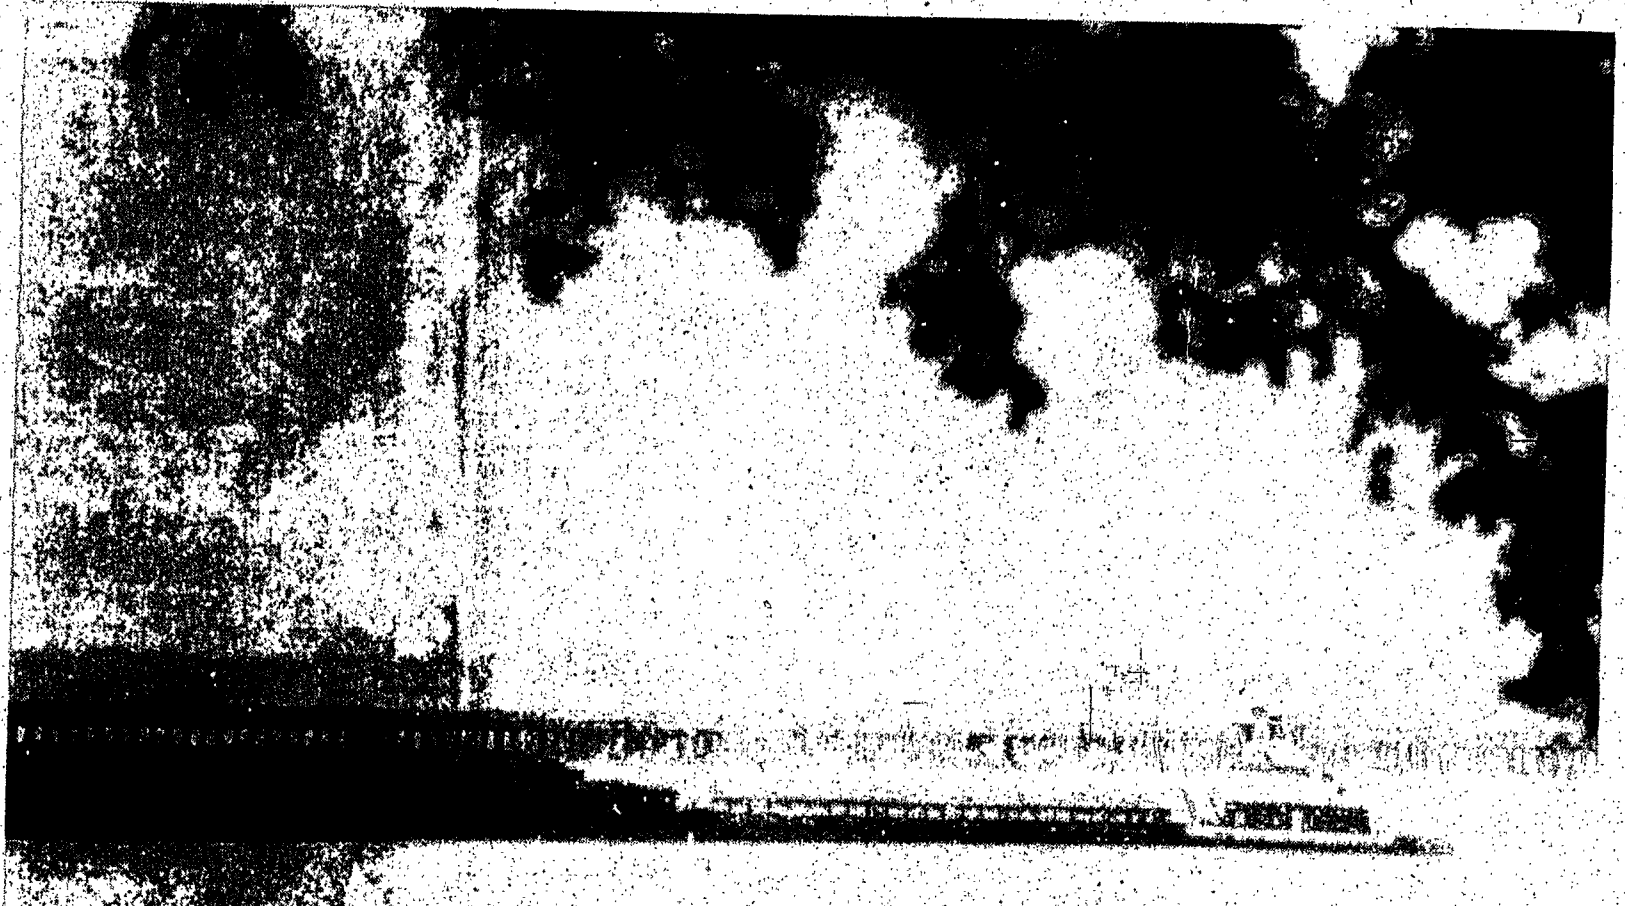

TROOPER NEWMAN

"We appreciate the Mississippi District Exchange Clubs for developing this program to strengthen and improve the effectiveness of law enforcement in this state," Commissioner James L. Roberts Jr., said of the "Trooper of the Year" awards program.

This is the fourth consecutive year the Mississippi District Exchange Clubs have sponsored the awards program which culminates in February in conjunction with the National Exchange Club's Crime Prevention Program.

"We are proud of the officers who have been named. Each has demonstrated loyalty and allegiance to the department and to their fellow officers," Roberts said.

Tugboat and barges stranded between Bay Bridge and Ulman Avenue pier.

Three barges run aground in Bay

Strong winds and low tides have caused three barges to run aground in the Bay of St. Louis this week.

The first barge to run aground in local waters was sighted early Friday morning between the Ulman Avenue pier and the Bay Bridge.

Saturday, two others ran aground, according to a Bay Bridge attendant who declined identification.

One tugboat and three shell barges went aground north of the bridge and the other was near the Bayou Potash Bridge.

The captain of the tugboat with shell barges (north of the bridge) said he was in the middle of the channel but the barges had started drawing too much water and that he would have to wait until the tide rises to move.

According to another Bay bridge attendant, the barge between the pier and the bridge, was pushed aground by the wind.

Several local residents have expressed concern about the barges that have run aground and been pushed in by the wind, in view of the disastrous results in New Orleans, La. and Tampa, Fla. where bridges have been struck by barges.

U.S.-90 convenience stores robbed

BY DENA BISNETTE

Two convenience stores on U.S.-90 have been hit by armed robbers within two days and authorities are still looking for suspects in both cases.

The Majik Mart on the corner of U.S.-90 and Washington Street in Bay St. Louis was robbed about 2:25 a.m. Thursday by a suspect who threatened a clerk with a small caliber blued steel handgun, according to Bay Police Investigator Joe Pica.

Pica said the robber directed clerk Janet Ladner to give him the money in the store's cash register and safe. The amount taken has not yet been determined.

The robber then instructed Ladner to lie on the floor and left the building. He was last seen walking

Sheriff's Department seeking escapee, murder defendant

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Sheriff's Department was still searching Friday for two fugitives.

Sheriff Ronald Peterson said the two wanted men are Jeffery Kerr of Pearlinton, a prisoner who escaped Friday while on a work detail, and Cecil Francis Turner of Bay St. Louis, defendant in a murder trial postponed twice this week by the Hancock County Circuit Court.

Kerr, who was arrested last March during a drug raid in Pearlinton, was serving eight years in the state penitentiary at Parchman on charges of possession of marijuana with intent to sell.

The prisoner had been transferred back to Hancock County from Parchman for a court appearance and had been assigned to the work detail because he was considered a trusty, Peterson said.

Kerr was supposed to have testified next week in an arraignment hearing for Allen Nicolaou, who is accused of murdering his cellmate.

The prisoner apparently walked away from the work detail and was discovered missing at about 7 a.m. Peterson said Kerr is not considered dangerous.

While local authorities are investigating Kerr's escape, Peterson has placed Turner's name on a nationwide computer network used by most of the country's law enforcement agencies.

Turner, 51, had been released on $20,000 bond but had failed to appear for a murder trial in Hancock County Circuit Court Monday and Wednesday.

Turner is charged with the shooting death of Lewis Meyers Sr. of Lakeshore. He is also charged with aggravated assault against Kenneth Meyers, brother of the deceased.

The shooting occurred Feb. 15,

1984, in the parking lot of Asher's Grocery off U.S.-90 in Waveland.

Peterson said Turner was jailed after the bondsman who had him released withdrew the bond.

Turner became ill while jailed and was sent to Hancock General Hospital.

Since then, Turner has been in and out of several hospitals but never rebonded, Peterson said.

Wreck kills Kiln man, injures two others

Everette Donald Stogner of Kiln was killed and two other people were injured Wednesday night in a head-on collision at Hwy. 603 and Paradise Road Wednesday night.

The injured included Stogner's wife, Victoria D. Stogner, and Dr. William Hill, a staff doctor at Gulfport Memorial Hospital.

Both of the injured were taken to Hancock General Hospital and were later transferred to Gulfport Memorial.

A hospital spokesman said Friday that Hill had been released but Mrs. Stogner remained in critical condition in the intensive care unit.

According to State Trooper Curtis Newman, who investigated the 7:30 p.m. accident, Hill's Oldsmobile apparently skidded on wet pavement and veered into the opposite lane, colliding with Stogner's vehicle.

Both cars went over an embankment, but Stogner's vehicle apparently rolled over at least once, Newman said.

"The car came to rest on the front part of the driver's side roof, crushing in the window and everything around it. It looks like that was what killed him," Newman explained.

Stogner was pronounced dead at the scene by Hancock County Coroner Harold Stiglet. Stiglet said the accident victim died of internal injuries.

FATALITY—The vehicle in which Everette Stogner of Kiln died Wednesday night sustained extensive front-end damage on the driver's side. State troopers at the scene.

testing to obtain stricter enforcement of child support payment laws and jail terms for parents found guilty of non-support. The group plans to hold a rally at 6 p.m. Tuesday on the Courthouse lawn. (Staff photo by Dena Bisnette)

Robberies

toward Washington Street.
The suspect is described as a young white male wearing an orange ski mask, grey gloves, blue jeans and a blue shirt. He is about 5 feet 8 inches tall.

Pica said authorities believe Thursday's robbery is unrelated to a similar incident earlier this week at the Junior Food Store in Waveland.

The Junior Food Store was robbed Tuesday at about 11:30 p.m., according to Waveland Police Chief Donald Dorn.

About $870 in cash and merchandise was taken. The merchandise consisted mostly of rings, watches and cigarettes, Dorn said.

The two suspects are described as a black male about 28 years old, about 5 feet 8 inches tall and 150 pounds, armed with a silver plated .38 caliber handgun; and a black male about 38 years old, 6 feet to 6 feet 2 inches tall and about 150 pounds.

Both robberies are still under investigation.

Burglars pay night visits to businesses

BY DENA BISNETTE

Two burglaries apparently committed by the same people Wednesday night are still being investigated by the Hancock County Sheriff's Department.

According to Sheriff Ronald Peterson, the burglaries occurred at Ladner's Grocery in Clermont Harbor and the Red Stable Lounge on U.S.-90 west of BaySide Park Subdivision.

At Ladner's, burglars removed a window-casing and broke glass to gain entrance to a lounge area at some time between 11 p.m. Wednesday and 5 a.m. Thursday.

Peterson said merchandise taken from the store included 25 cartons of cigarettes, eight cases of beer, a box of rolling papers, several containers of milk and assorted groceries.

The Red Stable Lounge was entered through a broken bathroom window between midnight Wednesday and 4 p.m. Thursday.

Merchandise taken included eight cases of beer. Peterson said the burglars also ransacked the building and broke several locks. They apparently left through the front door, the sheriff said.

He added that the amount of merchandise taken at both locations leads authorities to believe that more than one suspect was involved. Investigator Delbert Seay is in charge of both investigations, with assistance from Deputy Dennis Tardavouille on the Ladner's burglary and Deputy Mike Anderson on the Red Stable burglary.

POST OFFICE POTPOURRI

By TOM HILL
Postmaster,
Bay St. Louis

It seems that everyone just can't wait for the change of postal rates. However, the new rates do not go into effect until Feb. 17, so please don't over-react and start swamping us for orders of 2 cent stamps—you will only wind up having to try to get 11 of them onto an envelope after you have used up all of your 20 cent stamps.

For the eager beavers, through, who just can't wait to buy the new 22 cent non-denominated (generic??) 'D' series stamps, we do have a good supply of them in sheets, coils, and books which went on sale Feb. 2.

Incidentally, the new rate for first class mail will be 22 cents for the first ounce and will remain 17 cents for each additional ounce through 12 ounces.

An easy way to compute your postage is to multiply the ounces by 17 cents and add 5 cents to the product.

Post cards will be 14 cents each and Express Mail will go from $9.35 to $10.75 for the first two pounds and will increase proportionately for heavier articles up to 70 pounds.

Foreign rates and most all other postal services have also increased slightly.

However, there is some good news for our Postal Money Order customers—a dramatic drop in money order fees and an increase of the maximum amount that one can be purchased for.

The new money order rates to be effective Feb. 17 are: a 75 cent fee for up to $25 and a $1 fee for up to a maximum amount of $700, ($700 in money orders now would cost you $3.10 in fees).

Since all rates will be changed, we will try to include further information on the new rates in this column during the next few weeks.

ROAD CLOSED—Ralph Coleman of the Bay St. Louis Water Department, left, waits for equipment to arrive while water department employee Charles Everett and gas department employee Ivory Gillum check pipes at Ullman Avenue Thursday. The city crew discovered and repaired a leaking water main while installing culverts to correct drainage problems. The street is temporarily closed during the project and, if the weather permits work to continue on schedule, will be reopened next week, City Inspector Donn Murray said. (Staff photo by Dena Bisnette)

Nereids fantasizes a 'Sunday In The Park'

The 19th annual Bal Masque of the Krewe of Nereids recalled 'Sunday In The Park' through song, dance and pageantry at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum Saturday, Jan. 26.

This year's theme brought to mind many happy outings with family, friends and young lovers of many years ago.

Following the presentation of the Royal Court of 1984, the tableau began with a group of youngsters romping in the park, bathing beauties at the seashore, and a lively baseball game, followed by the marching "Suffragettes."

An intricate skating routine was performed by krewe members as the scene changed from a warm summer's day in the park to a "Winter Wonderland."

After the Grand March another group of krewe members performed special dance numbers for the Royal Court and invited the audience to participate in an old-fashioned sing-along.

Maid of the Royal Court portrayed symbols of the changing seasons of the "Fairytale Park."

Reminiscent of the first days of Spring, the first Maid portrayed Butterflies.

She was costumed in pale yellow accented in black, and draped to resemble wings. Her dress was accented with multicolored butterfly designs and her headpiece was covered with sequins and filled with pale yellow plumes.

The second maid portrayed Kites which proliferate as the winds of March fill the sky. Her costume was blue and featured a hoop skirt with sequined kite designs. Her elaborate headpiece was of matching color and design.

In a patriotic salute, the next Maid, costumed in red, white and blue, represented 4th of July Firecrackers. Her costume featured a train of red, white and blue sequins and her headpiece was designed to signify exploding firecrackers.

The fourth Maid represented Nature's Feathery Fowl as the season changed to the early frost of Fall. She was costumed in a burnt orange fitted gown featuring a train with sequined fowl designs and a matching headpiece of plumes and feathers.

The next Maid represented Falling Leaves of the Autumn season. She was costumed in a rust colored fitted gown featuring sequined leaf designs in brilliant fall colors. She wore a headpiece of matching plumes and designs.

The last maid portrayed the Winter Wonderland. She was in pink and white, accented with silver sequins, and featuring a hoop skirt with snowflake and snowman designs. Her headpiece was of silver sequins and pink plumes.

Dukes of the royal Court were costumed to compliment their respective Maids.

The Dukes were Mr. Michael D. Richardson, Mr. Robert Tardavouille, Mr. Leo W. Seal, Mr. Hendrik Daman, Mr. Claude D. Switzer and Mr. John L. Gonzales.

Her Majesty, Queen Doris XIX, daughter of Queen Doris III, was exquisite in a gown of pale aqua imported French organdy with a lace applied border accented with bugle beads and imported rhinestones.

Her mantle was made of rhinestones and studded with matching plumes, as was her crown. Her train featured yards of sequins and designs of mermaids and fish.

King Nereus XIX, Mr. Alvin G. Bernard, wore a tunic-style costume of pale aqua imported French organdy encrusted with rhinestones. His train also featured designs of fish and his collar and crown were of the same design as the Queen's.

The Captain was gowned in pink and silver sequins with a collar of pink feathers.

All Court costumes were made by Carter Church and headpieces made by Betty Starr.

Norris Fitzmorris was master of ceremonies. Kevin Champagne was the choreographer and the Harry Morel Orchestra provided the music.

Pages to Her Majesty were Master Correy Woodruff Gex, Miss Katherine Keen Kennedy, Master Andy Becker Kimbrell and Miss Diana Cherie Markel.

The Krewe of Nereids Parade will be presented Sunday, Feb. 10 at 2 p.m. in Waveland.

It is good to see the drain being repaired under Ulman Avenue Between Beach Boulevard and Second Street in Bay St. Louis.

This is a major project as the main gas line into the city had to be lowered before the larger culverts could be installed.

We are hoping the large culverts will be a relief to several residences on North Second Street whose yard would always flood during rains.

The flooding of Second Street has been a problem for many years.

We know there are still some folks interested in square dancing living in the area.

A Square Dance Exhibition is scheduled for Monday night at the National Guard Armory on Long Fellow Road.

Efforts are underway to establish a group for Hancock County and interested parties can call 467-6304.

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors are faced with a big task in the closing down of three illegal dumps on 16th section land.

We know a lot of folks in the Bay-Waveland area do not like the idea of now having to drive to the dump North of Kiln.

The area being used as a dump in Pearlinton will have to close, so that will probably mean those residents will have also to go to the county's central dump.

We can now visualize garbage being dumped on every street in the county, especially with no garbage pickup in the Pearlinton area.

Something rather than having to travel as far as our saying goes, 'halfway to Memphis,' to get to the garbage dump could be done for the residents.

We are hoping a closer site could be found and approved by the necessary governmental agencies.

State Council on Aging to survey elderly needs

The Mississippi Council on Aging (MCOA) will launch a statewide survey aimed at determining problems and needs of older Mississippians during the next two months.

This needs assessment study, which will be conducted from Jan. 28 to March 31, is designed to gain ideas and suggestions from older adults about what can be done to improve their lives and the lives of other older people.

"For a long time, the Council on Aging and other state agencies have tried to attract money to the state and plan programs for its citizens without a good, solid data base, other than census information," said Dr. David Brown, director of MCOA, a division of the Governor's Office of Human Development. "Information gathered in this assessment will give us good, believable data from which we can do some long-range planning of programs to meet the needs of our elderly citizens."

The rapid growth in the elderly population, throughout the state as well as the nation, also was an impetus for the study, Brown said. Currently, there are approximately 410,000 Mississippians over 60, according to MCOA.

"Our elderly population is growing, and estimates show that in 10 to 20 years it will increase by as much as 40 percent, overtaking the teenage population," he added. "We want to be sure to explore what kinds of services and programs we can provide to help keep as many older persons as possible at home and out of institutions."

A summary report of the survey will be mailed to participants and will be available to the public after July 1, Brown said. Names of respondents will not be used, and all information given will be confidential.

Michael Raff, director of the Office of Human Development, said a long range planning task force, to be made up of health care and geriatric professionals, aging services providers and others, is being established to receive an executive summary of the survey. The task force also will study, make recommendations and suggest programs in long-term community based health care and other areas of concerns the survey may point out.

Persons from local communities will be selected by area agencies on aging and MCOA to conduct the survey, Raff said. Interviewers will be cleared through local police departments and will have proper identification cards.

"To help dispel any fear that our elderly citizens may have about responding to interviewers when called upon, interviewers, who will be known by local area agencies on aging, will have official Mississippi Council on Aging identification cards, notebooks, survey sheets and copies of certificates of appreciation signed by Governor Allain," Raff said. "Should there be any questions about who an interviewer is, persons may contact their local area agency on aging director or their police or sheriff's departments. These agencies can tell them on the spot if and who interviewers are in the area."

More than 1,800 interviews will be conducted throughout the state, and in addition to home and nutrition site interviews, MCOA also will mail out questionnaires to other homes and provide self-addressed, stamped envelopes for respondents to reply.

"We're asking anyone who receives a survey sheet through the mail from the Council on Aging to take a few minutes to fill it out and return it to us," Brown said. "We hope that persons who are called upon will help us by participating and answering our questions as best they can. The responses given will help the Mississippi Council on Aging better understand the specific concerns of our older citizens and aid us in addressing some of these concerns. We want to help improve the quality of life for this rapidly growing segment of our population."

For further information about the survey, phone the Council on Aging at 354-6590 in Jackson or the Governor's Service Line, toll-free, 1-800-222-7622.

Hospital administrator explains Hancock Medical Center financing plan

Feb. 1, 1985
Editor
Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Editor:

There has been concern expressed about the cost and taxpayer responsibility for the construction of the new Hancock Medical Center.

The hospital board of trustees has worked with the Hancock County Board of Supervisors to develop a financing plan that will place no additional tax burden on the tax paying populace of Hancock County.

The plan calls for Hancock Medical Center to repay a $1.5 million general obligation bond issue from a portion of the 1.87 mills currently received by Hancock General Hospital.

The $11 million Hospital Revenue Bond issue will be paid by revenues generated by the new facility over a 25-year period.

Under no circumstance could the county become liable for the payment of the revenue bonds.

A financial feasibility study recently conducted by Arthur Young and Company, a nationally recognized CPA firm, has confirmed this plan and has made a recommendation supporting the plan.

In regard to renovation of the present facility, a study completed three years ago indicated the cost would be too great to justify any benefit, plus the facility would be forced to close several months for the renovations to be carried out.

I am available to discuss these issues with anyone who needs or desires further information.

Respectfully,
Phillip W. Langston

Gulfview special education teacher garners praises of parents

Editor

Dear Sir,

Since grade one, my child hated school, rebelled against it, and for a while this year I thought he would be serving a life sentence in detention.

I was at wits' end.

He was placed in Mrs. Johnson's class several weeks ago and I can't describe the miraculous changes that have come over him.

Instead of a discipline problem, he is suddenly a little boy who used to have problems.

She has won his love and trust and now he has a more positive attitude toward school.

His grades are improving and he is learning.

What can I say—if all teachers and faculty had the compassion, understanding and reasoning of this teacher our children in Mississippi would have positive attitudes and education far superior to any state.

Instead of putting down inferior teachers, let's give praise to the superior ones we do have.

House speaker names information director

Veteran legislative reporter Andrew Reese is the first information director of the Mississippi House of Representatives, effective Jan. 28.

House Speaker C.B. Newman said he and other House members had felt for some time an information officer was needed to help handle requests from schools and civic groups, prepare news releases, and assist members of the news media assigned to cover the Legislature.

His duties also would include writing reports for weekly newspapers on House activities, and helping House members prepare reports for hometown newspapers and radio stations.

"Andy has more than 20 years' experience covering the Mississippi Legislature," Newman said.

"His professional background, ability and knowledge of the legislative process make him especially qualified to serve as our first House information director."

Reese, a native Mississippian, has covered every regular session of the Mississippi Legislature since 1964

If all the year were playing holidays, to sport would be as tedious as to work.

Reaction from the grassroots necessary to halt consolidation

January 30, 1985
Letter to the Editor
The Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Sir,

I am writing to express my displeasure with the proposed consolidation of the Pass Christian school district.

Consolidation, they say, will improve the schools and save taxpayers' money. In the long run it is going to lower the standard of education as more students per teacher are added to the classes, as bond issues are voted down because the community spirit and identity becomes diluted, as school spirit dwindles and "small, inefficient" schools are closed to bus students to a larger more "modern efficient" school miles away.

We have all seen it happen many times before. A small thriving business is taken over by a large corporation. Soon the small business is no longer thriving. The big corporation changes things—"streamlines"—it doesn't understand what made the small business so good and it really doesn't care.

If Pass Christian is absorbed into Long Beach, we also inherit the bonds of millions of dollars to pay for the new kindergartens and other classrooms they need to build (which we have had for years).

We have only about $500,000 in outstanding loans at this time. So how will that save us any money when all of a sudden our indebtedness will be greatly multiplied?

The new plan is to have three members to the new consolidated school board appointed from within the Long Beach city limits. The other two members of the new board will be voted for at large from the rest of the new district—from Lizana, DeLisle, Pass Christian and Pineville.

I do not feel that is adequate representation from an area comprising more than half of the territory and most of the finances of the new district. How much say-so can we expect from this arrangement regarding the future education of our students?

The present consolidation plan took over a year to dream up and they are asking for alternate plans to be submitted in just 35 days, by Feb. 15.

I do not feel that is enough time for the various school boards to procure the information the plan was based on, study it and come up with an alternate plan. More time should be granted to them to formulate and submit a compromise solution.

The Senate has approved a three year delay in implementing the plan. But that just means that the plan as it now stands will be implemented in three years, not that it will be discussed again at that time.

Unless the law is changed—consolidation will be thrust upon us. The only ones who can change the law are our legislators, and they won't know how you feel unless you tell them.

So please call and write your legislators. If you are silent now, you can not complain later when things do not work out as you would like.

Sincerely,

JEANNE M. TAGGE

MEC MISSISSIPPI ECONOMIC COUNCIL

Helping Hand From Business

A selected few business leaders will be meeting in Jackson within the next few days, reviewing state problems and attempting to identify priority issues facing Mississippi and Mississippians.

From that review will come a list of suggested activities for the 1985-86 year for the Mississippi Economic Council, the state's largest association of business and professional individuals and firms.

This is what MEC has been doing for more than 35 years in Mississippi now—evaluating state problems, researching the issues, and recommending courses of action for government and for business.

The council has a notable record of achievement—in business, in education, in labor relations, in resource and community development, in taxation, in free enterprise education, and in other areas.

It is significant that the members of the council, representing every segment of the state's economic community and every county in Mississippi, volunteer their time, talents, energies, and resources to these tasks.

Just this year, for example, the council has conducted studies and made recommendations to the governor and the Legislature in such areas as flood control, the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway, implementation of the Education Reform Act, use of tax dollars at the local governmental level; and it has a continuing study under way of the state's economic development programs and policies.

At a time when government grows larger and larger and when the tax burden seems to become even heavier, it is good that business men and women are willing to contribute to the state's problem-solving efforts.

—I Peter 4:11

By W. Edwin Kearley, Minister

REPENTANCE

The weakness and ignorance of man has brought sin in the world. Sin is a "transgression of the law." (I John 5:17)

The consequence of sin is eternal death. (Romans 6:23) But God's love for man caused him to send his only begotten Son to die on the cross of Calvary that the world should not perish. (John 3:16)

Salvation is a gift. (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8) However the gift is conditional upon obedience.

The writer of Hebrews stated, "Though he were a Son, yet learned He obedience by the things which He suffered; and being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him." (Hebrews 5:8-9)

If an automobile dealer were to say, "If you will come to my place of business and take the key and put it in the ignition and crank the motor you may own that automobile," and one met the conditions, the automobile would be his.

The automobile would not have been earned. It would be a gift. Meeting the conditions of salvation does not merit salvation.

Jesus said, "So likewise, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you say, 'We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.'" (Luke 17:10)

One of the conditions of salvation is repentance. Jesus said, "I tell you, nay; but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." (Luke 13:3)

To the people of Athens, Paul said, "And the time of ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent." (Acts 17:30)

What is repentance? Peter said, "Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out." (Acts 3:19 NIV)

Jesus said, "...I tell you the truth, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 18:3)

Repentance is turning from the wrong practice to the right practice. Repentance, then, is a change of mind followed by a reformation of life.

Paul said, "For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but sorrow of the world worketh death." II Corinthians 7:10)

One may be filled with remorse, but that is not repentance. One may repent of a wrong deed to his fellowman but unless he regrets wronging God, he has not repented of his sin against God.

Judas made an effort to give back the 30 pieces of silver with which he betrayed his Lord but he did not repent. Instead he went out and hung himself. His body hung until it fell to the ground. (Acts 1:18; Matthew 27:5)

Jesus said of Judas, "...It had been good for that man if he had never been born." (Matthew 26:24)

When the new Christian Simon wanted to buy the power from the apostles in order that he might impart the Holy Spirit to others, Peter rebuked him.

"But Peter said unto him, thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee." (Acts 8:21-23)

Simon asked Peter to pray for him.

May we grow in a faith which leads to repentance!

Winn-Dixie sales up 6.6 percent

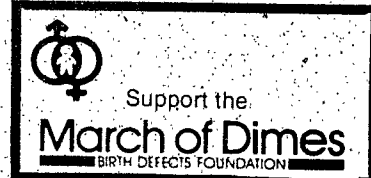

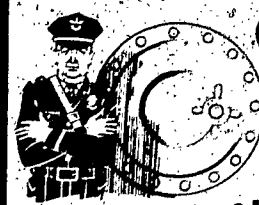

Winn-Dixie reports sales for the 16 weeks ended Jan. 9, 1985 totaled $2,348,696,000, an increase of $144,403,000 or 6.6 percent over the comparable period ended Jan. 11, 1984.

For the 28 weeks ended Jan. 9, 1985, sales totaled $4,080,706,000, an increase of $228,437,000 or 5.9 percent.

Net earnings for the 16 weeks were $30,101,000 or $.73 per share, compared with $35,014,000 or $.86 per share last year.

For the 28 weeks net earnings were $49,564,000 or $1.21 per share as compared to $54,413,000 or $1.32 per share last year.

Commenting on second period results, president A. Dano Davis said, "Our commitment to vigorously counter competition increased the rate of sales gain but adversely affected profit margins."

County Agent's Notes

Tree Planting Time

You still have through February to transplant young peach and pecan trees. Be sure to plant properly to increase the tree's chances of survival.

First, dig a hole large enough and deep enough to permit setting the plant without bending, breaking or crowding the roots. Prune the roots only where necessary to remove damaged or dead roots or roots that are very long and out of proportion with the others.

Place loose topsoil in the bottom of the hole. Set the plant upright in the hole at the depth it was growing in the nursery. Then fill the hole about two-thirds full with good soil so it will settle around the roots.

Fill the hole with water to help pack the soil, then finish filling the hole with topsoil. Leave a slight depression around the base of the plant to hold water during rains and irrigation.

Don't apply fertilizer at planting. You will need to fertilize the young trees later after the roots have established.

On pecan trees, cut the transplant back about one-third at planting. Wrap the trunks of newly transplanted trees with strips of burlap, heavy paper or similar material to prevent sunscald and damage from wood-boring insects.

Keep the trunk wrapped for about two years until the top growth provides shade for the trunk.

Gas Valve Alert

Improper use of liquefied petroleum (LP) home heating systems may result in explosion or fire, Honeywell and the U.S. Product Safety Commission are warning consumers.

A potential safety hazard exists when the knob on a Honeywell V8280 valve used on LP gas furnaces and heaters is forced past a safety mechanism into the "on" position. The damaged valve could allow raw gas to flow into a home, and explosion or fire could follow, the company says.

No natural gas appliances are affected; the company stresses. Only valves on LP appliances may be in question.

The valve usually is located on the front of an LP furnace or heater and has "Honeywell" stamped on the control surface. In the normal "on" position the control knob of the valve has about one-half inch of space between the bottom of the knob and the control surface below. If there is less space, the knob may be stuck down in the "on" position and there is danger.

Honeywell is urging all LP gas users to check their furnaces and heaters for the V8280 valve. If the valve is stuck in the "on" position, call Honeywell toll-free at 1-800-328-8194. The valve will be replaced free.

Honeywell also has asked LP dealers to replace all on-off knobs on the company's V5130 gas water heater control to prevent possible fire by forced jamming of the knob. Those who have the valve on their LP gas water heater should ask their LP dealer for a free replacement.

Power company lists local franchise fees

Mississippi Power Company has paid the city of Bay St. Louis $102,629 and the city of Waveland $59,161 in franchise fees for 1984, according to Barnard Jacob, Supervisor, Bay St. Louis/Pass Christian area.

Jacob said the payments by Mississippi Power Company are used by the cities to help pay for community services such as police and fire protection, education, streets and recreation.

Mississippi Power Company pays a franchise fee to 52 municipalities in its 23-county service area in southeast Mississippi. The utility paid more than $6.7 million in franchise funds to these towns and communities for the four quarters of 1984.

By Katy McGuire Caire

A "Pot au Feu" means, literally, the "pot on the fire" and is the French cook's answer to the Creole "Boeuf Bouilli" or "boiled beef" or the New Englander's "Boiled Dinner" except that you must never, never let the meat boil, but just simmer it below the boiling point for a few hours, else it will be tougher than tough.

As I write this, my beef brisket is simmering away, on a chilly, damp day—but the weather may well change by the time you read this, and you may not be in the mood for such a hearty, heartwarming meal. But, just wait awhile, the weather'll change again!

In many cities of Europe boiled beef is considered a delicacy, especially in Austria, as famed for its boiled beef as for its elegant tortes and pastries.

A variety of cuts may be used for this dish—lean brisket, short ribs, bottom round, and so on—or you may want to go all-out Yankee and use corned beef brisket. A three to five pound cut is ample for four to six servings, with "planned overs" as I call the better-the-next-day-dishes.

My favorite is a lean brisket of beef, flour-dredged, well browned, then simmered with onions and carrots and such. If I want clear stock I stop at this; if not, I often add potatoes and even cabbage and perhaps whole onions and carrots during the last hour of cooking time.

Sometimes I serve the broth as a first course, then the beef, sliced in good chunks, along with horseradish or horseradish sauce. At other times, I heap it all together in a bowl and enjoy it "French Country" style. Here's:

POTAUFEU or BEEF BOUILLI

Approximately 3 to 5 lbs. brisket or other cut

Flour for dredging beef
Oil or fat pork or bacon drippings for browning

Bay leaf, pinch of thyme, pepper, salt

Four cups boiling water
Several sprigs parsley
Celery leaves

Two onions, two carrots, chopped
Potatoes, cabbage, optional

Wipe the brisket with a damp cloth, and dredge in flour. Heat the oil in your heavy pot, and brown the meat slowly on all sides. Add the onions and let them brown as the meat does.

Add the carrots, seasonings and the boiling water. Note: you must use the hot water rather than cold, to retain the juices in the meat; and be careful not to prick the meat with a fork at any time, for the same reason.

Cover the pot, and simmer below the boiling point for three hours or more, or until the beef is tender, but not stringy or mushy. Serve with horseradish or horseradish cream sauce.

If you want to serve the beef cold, just let it cool in the pot, then put it on a plate, and weight it down with another plate, to press the beef into form so that it will slice nicely.

Square dancers start club

Two Bay St. Louis residents, Phillip and Mary Billiot, plan to establish a square dance club in Hancock County.

The Billiot's, who have been square dancing with other Gulf Coast clubs for several years, have organized an exhibition dance to be Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the National Guard Armory on Longfellow Drive.

The exhibition will kick off a series of square dancing lessons at the armory from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Mondays beginning Feb. 18.

Instructor will be Doyle Grant of Gulfport. A $2 fee will be charged in order to pay the instructor, but the club will be a non-profit organization, Billiot said.

Membership will be open to any age group other than children under 9 years old. Couples are preferred but single members are also welcome.

"Square dancing is something the whole family can do. That's why we want to start a club here," Mrs. Billiot explained.

Dues will be $1.50 and will be used to pay the dance caller.

After the club is established, a name will be chosen and officers will be elected. Other types of dancing may be added later, Billiot said.

Catholic School Week events slated Feb. 4-8

Each year Catholic schools nationwide celebrate Catholic Schools Week to recognize the accomplishments of Catholic primary and secondary schools across the country.

Students attending Bay Catholic Elementary School will celebrate Catholic Schools Week Feb. 4 to 8.

Events will include an essay contest, a poster contest, student and teacher appreciation days, Parents' Day and a special Mass.

To emphasize this year's theme, 'Catholic Schools: Sharing the Vision-Teaching Values,' students at Bay Catholic Elementary composed letters expressing their feelings about the school.

Following are texts of several of those letters.

Dear People,

My school is a very good school because I have a very good teacher. My P.E. teacher is very good too. My friends mean so much to me. I love school.

From Jamie Randolph
First Grade

Dear Bay St. Louis,

B.C.E. is a good school. We want you to come next year because we have a good principal and we talk about Jesus. We have music and art and library. We have good food and we have nice teachers.

Love your friend,
Julie Heitzmann
First Grade

Dear Readers,

I think children should go to Catholic schools because they learn more about their religion than public schools.

Catholic schools help children to learn more. I like Bay Catholic Elementary because the teachers are very nice. They take care of us when we are sick. They teach us religion and a lot of subjects. They teach us manners, too. I have a lot of friends, and I've been here since I started school.

Sincerely,
Tonya Chevis

Dear Miss Allen,

I was not at all forced to go to Bay Catholic. I wanted an excellent education and I am certainly getting one. I feel like I would get more attention out of a Catholic School than a public school too. Most children are sent to a public school therefore you do not receive personal attention. I also wanted a strong religious background and I am certainly getting one. I have gone to Bay Catholic for two years and I have deeply enjoyed it.

Sincerely,
Amy Parrish

Dear Editor,

I like catholic schools because they give you special attention. A catholic school gives you values and shows you self control. My catholic school gives me these things. I used to think it was neat being bad, but now that I'm in this school I learned that being good pays off. I didn't know how important religion was before I came to a catholic school.

Sincerely,
Josh Siefken

Dear Friends,

I think Bay Catholic is the best school I ever had in my whole life because we have art, library, music, P.E., lunch and church. The special thing about my school is that God and His Son Jesus are here.

Your friend,
Gwyn Krost
First Grade

I like Catholic schools because I learn Religion at Catholic schools. I learn all sorts of things. The most best lesson is Religion I think. I don't know if other children like Religion as much as me. I like church to. But sometimes I act bad in church on accident but I really like church.

Gina Perniciaro

Dear Sirs,

Bay Catholic is a good school. It has a good cafeteria and good sports. Some sports are football, basketball, and soccer. We have a good playground. We have some good teachers.

Sincerely,
Regan Kane

Dear Editor:

The reason I go to a catholic school because you are taught Religion and at public schools you are not taught Religion every day of the week. You dress in a presentable fashion. You make lots of nice friends. And you can have a choice of a lot of activities to do.

Sincerely,
Konnie Merrigan

Dear Sirs,

I like Bay because it has a lot of activities. This year we are participating in a Bible Contest to see how much we know about the Bible. I learn a lot about art, music, physical education and other major subjects. We have sports like football and basketball. We learn a lot about manners and handwriting. This is a very nice school.

Sincerely,
Jonathan Compretta
5th Grade

Dear Editor,

I like Bay Catholic alot. The people here care and the teachers would listen to any problems you might have. Getting new friends here is easy too. I really like all my teachers. One of them is my mom (I like her also). My main teacher is Ms. Allen, and I like her alot. She will do anything to make our class a better class. Well that's it!

Sincerely,
Melanie Howard

A catholic school is a good school because you learn about God. God is important. If you go to church then you will see. At school they take people to church. We have to do work not hard work. Some of it is easy. I learn a lot of things. We love Bay Catholic.

Shawn Morel
Grade 3

I like my school because it is a Catholic school. Every body should go to a Catholic school, especially Bay Catholic Elementary, that's my school. The principal is very nice. She is the best principal in the world.

The children and teachers are nice. Some schools are big and fancy but I like my school just the way it is.

Joanne
Grade 3

I love my mom & dad very much. Because they brought me to this school.

And I also love this school very much.

By Lawren Whittle

I like going to Bay Catholic because I have met new friends. The teachers are nice. We also have a nice principal. Not to mention the good education. We go to Mass on Thursday. The religion is good. We should follow the Beatitudes and the Ten Commandments to be good. We have good teachers. They help us to learn many things.

Your friend,
Michelle Johnson

Dear Editor:

I am going to this school because it is a good one. I gives me a good education. It has good teachers. It gives us a good hot lunch every day, and has good activities for you to join. If anybody else goes to this school I am sure they will like it.

Sincerely yours,
Stacey Feuerstein

P.S. Please put this in the newspaper. Thank you!

Dear Sirs,

I would like to tell you something about Bay Catholic. They give you a good education in the subjects you have. They teach how to have good penmanship and how to be nice. The cafeteria has very good food. We also have alot of good sports to participate in. We also have recess and P.E. We have Music and art too. I recommend this school strongly to Catholics.

Sincerely,
Charles Merrigan

I like Catholic School because they teach about JESUS. They give us education. They give us nice things to do and play. And I make good friends.

By Nicole Christenberry
Grade 2

Going to Bay Catholic Elementary you can learn more things. You can do fun thing in Art and P.E. You can also learn thing on T.V. We can also do very fun things in Music too. We have nice people, who give us parties. We all pray for very ill and sick people. We have a very nice principal, Ms. Allen. We also have very nice parents to bring us here, and we have a nice secretary Ms. Otto. I love Bay Catholic Elementary.

Amy Schaefer

Dear People of Mississippi,

My name is Kim. I am 10 years old and in Bay Catholic Elementary. I really like this school for many reasons. Bay Catholic has always given good education to everyone. I have gone to this school since kindergarten and it has been lots of fun. All my friends could tell you that too. Everything in this school is nice. It has good food. We are taught our Catholic religion, to be respectful, and to have manners. We also have friendly teachers. Your daughter or son would have fun, plus get a good education.

1985 COMMODITY PROGRAMS

In an effort to control excess crop supplies and maintain better balance between supply and demand, the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, on Oct. 15, began accepting applications for the 1985 feed grain, wheat, cotton and rice acreage reduction programs. The sign up period ends March 1.

Farmers who meet the acreage reduction requirements will be eligible to receive price support loans and target price protection, in addition to land diversion payments for wheat, upland cotton and rice, according to county ASCS official Franklin A. Gennin.

"By reducing planted acreage and production, farmers minimize the possibility of a return to excess supply situations and low prices, and also maintain a level of stocks in line with market demand," Gennin said. The 1985 commodity programs call for a 35 percent reduction in rice, a 30 percent reduction in wheat and upland cotton, and a 10 percent reduction in feed grain and extra long staple cotton acres.

As a part of that reduction, program participants will receive payments for diverting 10 percent of their wheat and upland cotton acres, or for diverting 15 percent of their rice acres.

Gennin said farmers may request at sign up, one half of the land diversion payment and one half of the projected 1985 deficiency payment for upland cotton, feed grains, wheat and rice.

Cropland idled by the programs is placed in an acreage conservation reserve and planted to certain grasses, legumes, small grains or maintained in other cover to prevent soil and water erosion.

"The contract also requires that farmers maintain these acres through normal control measures for insects, weeds and rodents."

The ASCS official said harvesting ACR land is prohibited, and grazing is prohibited during the six principal growing months of May 1-Oct. 31.

To apply for the 1985-acreage reduction programs, or obtain further program details, farmers may contact the Pearl River-Hancock County ASCS Office between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

These times are busy times, and people are busy.

Today's homemaker is a cook, housemaid, chambermaid, waitress, nurse, chauffeur and gardener, as well as a wife, mother, job holder and community leader. For her the problem of meal planning and food preparation are more challenging than ever.

But it is still possible to provide the comforts of peaceful, enjoyable family living traditionally associated with the table and with some shortcuts to good eating.

No magic formula exists, but there are some helpful suggestions on how to prepare quick and easy meals with little work and energy. Follow these suggestions and still have the satisfaction of creating nourishing, appetizing meals for family enjoyment.

Be well organized in plans and have a sound knowledge of meal planning, cooking principles, and food values. Having the ability to prepare simple, nourishing and interesting meals in limited time takes skill and imagination. Good organization is perhaps the most important key to time-saving meal preparation.

Advance planning and not fast footwork is the secret to cutting down kitchen time, yet serving really good meals and not just casual snacks. Allow time to plan. Having a well-organized, convenient place to do the planning with paper, pencils, recipe file, cookbook and Basic Four Food chart is important. Collect time saving menus, recipes and ideas. Save recipes and menus that have been found to be timesavers.

Ask, "Just what do I want to do? Cut preparation time? Spend less time on last-minute preparation? Spend less time in serving the meal? Or is it to spend less time in clean-up?"

Basic rules of menu planning apply whether it is a quick meal or a "Sunday Special." In trying to cut down on time, make sure not to cut down on good standards of nutrition, attractiveness and appetite appeal.

A market list should be part of the planning. Know what food supplies are in the freezer, in the refrigerator or on the shelves. It helps to keep a record of what is put in and taken out of the freezer and to group similar foods together so certain foods can be found. Some homemakers like to package together foods for an entire meal.

Arranging canned food according to kind on the shelves enables the homemaker to know at a glance what's on hand. Shopping once or twice a week saves time, money and energy. Foods listed in the order that they are found on the grocery shelves speeds shopping.

Once plans are made, the next step is to use them. If they don't work out, change them so they will. Time-saving meals include several types. If a family likes simple meals, food and mixtures and is willing to try new ventures into eating, there are endless possibilities in the main-dish meal.

Many of the foods needed for good nutrition may be combined in one dish that is appetizing and good to eat. Main dishes prepared ahead and frozen include: cooked meat and poultry, stews, meat or poultry pies, meat loafs, chili con carne, meatballs in sauce, stuffed peppers, various casserole dishes and creamed meat, poultry and fish. Cool the food quickly and then package and freeze it at once.

Oven meals are easy to prepare and do not demand close attention while cooking. A complete meal in the oven (except salad and beverage), can be prepared with careful planning. Select foods that require about the same baking temperature.

At 375° F, for example, a meatloaf can be baked along with tomatoes and apples. Potatoes require 10 to 20 minutes longer than at 425° F.

When the meatloaf comes out of the oven boost the temperature to 400° and put in a pan of muffins. Make a salad and beverage, and dinner is ready.

While planning, a broiler meal can be the answer to the meal at 5:30 p.m. when the homemaker enters the kitchen at 5 p.m. Broiler meals need more watching than oven meals, but the cooking time is shorter. They also simplify dishwashing because the whole meal is cooked in one pan.

With a freezer, a supply of prepared foods that need only to be thawed or heated before serving can be kept on hand. Save time by preparing two or three times the amount needed for one meal and freezing the extra amount.

ETV Brief

MISSISSIPPI ROADS

The second season of "Mississippi Roads," which aired last fall on Mississippi ETV, will be rebroadcast at 7:30 p.m. Tuesdays, beginning Feb. 5. Sam Dudley of Starkville is host.

Each program in the series includes regular segments: a lead story; a "capital" story about the Jackson area or Jacksonians; a brief "sidebar"; a food story; a musical segment; and an arts segment.

In the program Feb. 5, Larry Fisk of Tishomingo and his exotic menagerie are the headliners. Fisk is owner of Fisk's Game Farm where exotic animals are bred and raised for zoos, parks of just for unusual pets.

Ed Henry of Jackson works behind the scenes in Jackson entertainment. "Stagehand" is too limiting a label for this professional who has spent more than half a century working with lights, properties and equipment at the Jackson Municipal Auditorium and other theaters in the capital city.

During the course of the program, "Mississippi Roads" makes a quick stop in Hot Coffee in Covington County where Dudley explains how the community got its descriptive name. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Harper of R.J. Knight's General Merchandise are seen serving hot coffee to visitors.

Nancy King is the real person behind Nancy's Candy, a Jackson confectionery of homemade chocolates and other sweet treats. Ms. King tells the story of her business, and viewers watch fresh orange creams being made.

For musical entertainment, Sweet Dixie of Hattiesburg takes center stage for its authentic bluegrass rendition of "Sitting on Top of the World." Members of the group are Gathel Runnels (fiddle) and Mike Hyde (guitar), both of Hattiesburg; Ricky Mauldin (banjo) and Dicky Mauldin (bass), both of Laurel; and Don Robinson (mandolin) of Sandersville.

Jerome Seu of Greenville is featured on "Mississippi Roads" arts segment. Seu successfully combines two disparate professions in his life: he is a butcher at Min Sang Grocer and Market and a well-known wood sculptor.

Choral duo to perform at Keesler Chapel 3

The Keesler chapel will present a concert by John Ware and Kay Horne at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 10 during the gospel service at Chapel Three.

Both were original members of the Keesler Soul Choir.

Ware is the conductor and musical director of the New Orleans Black Chorale, a professional choral organization, and is the director for the Xavier University Concert Choir.

He has been featured as a tenor soloist in numerous recitals on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, the greater

New Orleans area, as well as other areas of the country.

Horne performs regularly with the New Orleans Opera Association and has been featured as a soprano soloist on numerous occasions, including the 1984 musical celebration of Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday presented by the New Orleans Symphony.

The service will also feature selections by the Keesler Soul Choir.

Refreshments will be served following the service which is open to everyone.

Schmidt-Treutel

Our Lady of the Gulf Church in Bay St. Louis was the setting for the January marriage of Melissa Anne Treutel of Bay St. Louis and Charles Theodore Schmidt of Pass Christian. The 2 p.m. Nuptial Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Francis Farrell, pastor, and Monsignor James McGough, pastor, St. Paul's Church in Pass Christian.

Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. John McKenna, organist, and Mrs. Alan Noonan, soloist.

Readings from scripture were rendered by David and Angelyn Treutel and Aimee Schmidt, sister of the groom. Also participating in special prayers and presentations were Anne Schmidt, Aimee Schmidt and Christopher Schmidt.

Serving as altar boys were Paul Scardino and Sean Anthony of Pass Christian.

Standing baskets of white gladioli, fugi poms and carnations flanked the altar, which was decorated with white poinsettias. Garlands and greenery completed the decorations in the sanctuary, and satin bows marked the pews of the center aisle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of ivory satin with fitted bodice applied with beaded Alencon lace and a jeweled lace collar on a sheer yoke of English net. The Juliet sleeves of English net and satin featured a gentle puff at the shoulder and tapered to the wrist. The fitted basque waistline was marked with lace above a full gathered skirt which swept to a chapel length train. She wore a small tiara headpiece of matching lace and pearls which held a tiered veil of illusion.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white bridal roses, dendrobium orchids and baby's breath interspersed with English ivy.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Catherine Treutel of Bay St. Louis, her sister.

Sally Jones of Natchez served as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Susan Treutel of Bay St. Louis, a sister of the bride; Debra Treutel of Slidell, La., sister-in-law of the bride; Beth Schmidt and Patricia Schmidt, both of Pass Christian, sisters of the groom; and Suzie K. Hand of Houston, cousin of the bride.

The attendants were identically attired in royal blue velvet gowns in tea length with round, scoop necklines, short puffed sleeves, princess fitted bodice with diagonally cut waistline with self bow at the hip above a full gathered skirt. They carried cascade bouquets of cream-white roses, baby's breath and English ivy.

Elizabeth Byrne of Pass Christian in a velvet gown styled similar to the attendants with ivory lace collar attended as flower girl, and Billy Herbert of Gulfport was ring bearer.

Dr. Schmidt served his son as best man. Groomsmen were Frank Schmidt Jr. and Thomas Schmidt, brothers of the groom, both of Houston; Steve Treutel of Slidell and Paul Treutel of Bay St. Louis, brothers of the bride; John Logan of Pass Christian; and Martin Tighe of Anniston, Ala.

Ushers were Christopher Schmidt of Pass Christian, brother of the groom; Simon Wilson of Houston and Karl Ott of Biloxi.

Mrs. Treutel chose for her daughter's wedding an ivory tea length gown of chiffon and lace in peplum styling with satin sash at the waist, long full sleeves and lace bordered hemline.

The groom's mother wore a slate grey dress of georgette crepe. The bodice was overlaid with a T-collar extending to the natural waist adorned with delicate embroidery and lace above a softly gathered skirt. They wore corsages of white roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. Decorating the reception tables and mantel were floral arrangements in soft pastel colors. The guest book attendant was Jan Scardino of Pass Christian.

Following a honeymoon trip to West Dover, Vermont, the newlywed couple will reside in Jackson.

Pre-Nuptial Parties

A cocktail party Dec. 15 at the home of Dr. and Mrs. David Byrne of Pass Christian was co-hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Hoshall Barrett.

Mrs. A.J. Chapman III was hostess for an old-fashioned kitchen pounding Dec. 16, at her Waveland home.

American Legion Auxiliary 139

At the January meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 139 in Bay St. Louis, the members made plans for an upcoming fund raiser for Jimmy Dean's National Commanders Fund.

Members will assist the legion with the spaghetti and meatball supper on Jimmy Dean Day Feb. 8. Tickets are available from both legion and auxiliary members.

The auxiliary is also raffling a Basket of Cheer for the Dean fund. Tickets are also available from members.

Roz Weathers, National Security chairman, announced that Tom Daniels of the Mississippi Highway Patrol will be the guest speaker at the next meeting.

Legislative Chairman Lucille Boudreaux reported on bills and proposed bills of interest to the veterans. One bill of particular interest concerns a nursing home for veterans.

Federal funds for the nursing home are already approved but the state must still provide matching funds. The City of Jackson has donated the old VA Hospital property.

All veterans and voters are asked to write their Senator or Representative in support of the nursing home. This is a one time offer and if Mississippi turns it down Arkansas will have the opportunity to take it. The Senate Bill number is 914.

Mattie North, rehabilitation chairman, reported that she is collecting coats and other clothes for hospitalized veterans. She is planning a luncheon and party for the veterans in March. Unit 139 sponsors a party or outing of some kind on the third Thursday of every month.

Lena Cuevas, chairman of the veterans' parties held in Bay St. Louis, announced that Unit 139 will have a party in April. The date will either be April 23 or 30. Definite plans will be announced later.

The Department Foreign Relations chairman has again asked members to write letters to Hanoi.

The U.S. still has over 1,000 men still unaccounted for in Southeast Asia. The National League of Families of American Prisoners and Missing in Southeast Asia, working with the American Legion and the Auxiliary, requests every citizen of the United States to write a letter to Hanoi.

The address to write is Hanoi-SRV Representative to the United Nations, 20 Waterside Plaza, New York, NY 10010. For more information on this project, contact Lou Wilkerson or Evelyn Burns.

The next regular meeting of Clement R. Bontemps Unit 139 American Legion Auxiliary will be Feb. 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the legion home.

Among several important topics discussed was a fund raising event to be conducted in June to benefit the club's favorite charity.

Mrs. Pere Cabibi, program chairlady, presented an educational program on the "Planting, Feeding and Care of Bulbs."

Plants and arrangements were judged and winners in the various categories included: dried, Mrs. J.C. Goodloe; horticulture, Mrs. Maurice Shea; potted, a tie between Mrs. Beverly Praetorius and Mrs. Coogan; cultivated, Mrs. Frank Klein Jr.; miniature, Mrs. Robert Ortiz and wild, Mrs. A.M. Thomas.

Door prize was won by Mrs. Shea.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Coogan for the social following the meeting were Mrs. Robert Taconi and Mrs. Germaine Mains.

Next meeting will be Feb. 21 at the home of Mrs. Ortiz.

Alicia Carlene Pearson and Keith Edward Murphy were married in a 2 p.m. ceremony on Saturday, January 12, at Main Street United Methodist Church in Bay St. Louis.

The Reverend Curtis Moffat officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Felton L. (Buddy) Whitfield of Bay St. Louis, and the late Carl Wayne Pearson. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Murphy of Pearlinton.

Special music was provided by Mrs. Mary Howard, organist, and Mrs. Sandra Compretta and Mrs. Connie Heitzman, soloists.

Arrangements of white gladioli, carnations, mauve and burgundy blossoms, palm greenery and ferns decorated the sanctuary.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. Bilbo Skipper, the bride wore a formal gown of white chiffon with Queen Anne neckline and fitted bodice enhanced with venise lace and pearls, full bishop sleeves with lace applied fitted cuffs, and crystal pleated skirt with satin bow at the back and chapel-length train.

Her lace and pearl decorated cap held a chapel-length veil of illusion. She carried a silk cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, lily-of-the-valley and baby's breath interspersed with satin picot ribbon.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Tereau Pearson of Jackson.

Bridesmaids were Desiree Whitfield of Bay St. Louis, sister of the bride; Tammy Skipper of Picayune, cousin of the bride; Amy Compretta and Lisa Johnson of Bay St. Louis.

The attendants were identically attired in burgundy jacquard taffeta gowns in tea-length, each with ruffled portrait collar, small puffed sleeves, cummerbund waistline and full gathered skirt.

They carried silk nosegays of mauve and burgundy rosebuds, with baby's breath and satin ribbon streamers.

Pepper Pearson of Gulfport, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink taffeta gown in a style similar to the maids with ruffled flounce hemline and bustle back. She carried a basket of silk blossoms and wore a wreath of baby's breath accented with tiny flowers. Sonny Schindler of Waveland was ring bearer.

Serving as best man was Robert

Lichtenstein of Pearlinton.

Groomsmen were Kevin Murphy of Pearlinton, brother of the groom; David Russ of Long Beach, Steve Gosinski and Jerry Favre.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the American Legion Home in Bay St. Louis. Floral arrangements of mauve and burgundy and palm and fern greenery decorated the reception rooms.

Mrs. Whitfield chose for her daughter's wedding a rosette moire taffeta tea-length gown topped with brief jacket with fluted stand-up collar and long, tapered sleeves.

Mrs. Murphy wore a cream georgette crepe dress with jewel neckline, softly draped bodice with burgundy floral motif and slim skirt. They wore silk orchid corsages.

Following a honeymoon trip to Destin, Fla., the couple will reside in Pearlinton.

Murphy-Pearson

Chevis-Shaw

Belva Grace Shaw became the bride of Dr. Bertin C. Chevis Friday, Jan. 11 at St. Joseph Chapel in Bay St. Louis with the Rev. Francis Theriault officiating at the evening candlelight ceremony.

Wedding selections were presented by St. Augustine seminarians.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson S. Shaw of Hattiesburg. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Chevis Sr. of Bay St. Louis.

The bride was attired in a gown of ivory duchess satin. The sheath styling featured a natural waisted bodice with a scooped neckline and long Victorian sleeves. An apron of softly tucked satin adorned the hipline accentuated by a large bow in back. The straight skirt was designed with a small sweep train.

A fingertip illusion was caught to a tiny cap of pearls. A re-embroidered Alencon lace completed the ensemble.

Mrs. Richard Speed of Hattiesburg attended the bride as matron of honor. Mrs. David Shaw and Mrs. Scott Shaw served their sister-in-law as bridesmaids.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Michael McGinty. Groomsmen were John Heath and Mike Gemelli.

Chuck Benvenutti, David Shaw and Scott Shaw served as ushers.

The ceremony also included flowergirls Miss Erin Elizabeth Favre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Favre and Miss Norma Melissa Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Shaw.

Ringbearer was Lewis Trevor Speed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Speed.

Following the ceremony, the couple greeted their guests at a reception catered by Sylvia Robinson of Diamondhead, with music provided by Pat Murphy and the Juke Jumpers.

After a honeymoon trip to Aspen, Colorado, the new Dr. and Mrs. Chevis will make their home in Bay St. Louis.

Pre-Nuptial Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Mike McGinty, Mr. John Heath and Mrs. Theresa Arnold were hosts for a bar shower held at the Landmark Restaurant on Dec. 23.

A bridal luncheon on January 11 was hosted by Mrs. Richard Speed and Mrs. Scott Shaw.

Births

JACOB ANTHONY PRESNELL

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory R. Presnell of Pace, Fla., announce the birth of their second child and second son, Jacob Anthony, January 11, 1985 at 12:30 p.m. in Baptist Hospital in Pensacola, Fla.

He weighed 7 pounds, 14 ounces.

Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Norma Wehmeier of Pensacola, Fla. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Elus Depreo Sr. of Kiln.

Point of Law

(Prepared by the Mississippi State Bar. Some legal rights may vary from locality to locality. Always consult an attorney when in doubt about your rights.)

Q: How does the court decide if the rights of a child should prevail in a legal proceeding or if the rights of the parents should prevail?

A: This is one of the most difficult issues to resolve in juvenile justice. Various supreme court rulings have determined three guides about children's rights that lower courts must follow in making their decision.

The first is that parents have the primary responsibility to raise their children. The second is that the state has the responsibilities to children and can intervene and act as "parent" if the children are abused, neglected, abandoned or their parents' lifestyle is considered to be inadequate or inappropriate for raising children.

The third aspect of children's rights is that as "people" they have rights of their own and as "individuals" they have rights in relation to the family and to the state.

Q: What are some of the legal rights and responsibilities granted when a person turns eighteen?

A: When a person turns eighteen, he or she is eligible to vote and can register for local, state and federal elections. At this age, young people have the right to make contracts, such as a lease agreement or credit purchase. However, if they fail to meet the terms of that contract, they can be sued. Another right—and responsibility—is to own and to control their own property and to control the money they earn.
